MLC COVID-19 Updates Moving to Weekly Format

Due to the declining number of Executive Orders, updates from the governor's office, and news surrounding the virus, we will transition our daily updates to weekly updates beginning today. You can expect to receive our COVID-19 newsletter on Monday afternoons in your inbox. As always, should there be breaking news on the virus as it relates to Michigan we will email a breaking news update ASAP. If you have any questions, please reach out to your lobbyist.

A.G. Joins Bipartisan Coalition

Attorney General Dana Nessel has joined a bipartisan coalition of 38 attorneys general asking Google and Apple to ensure all contract tracing and exposure notification apps related to COVID-19 adequately protects consumers' personal information. Specifically, they're asking the companies to guarantee that such apps are affiliated with a public health authority. The coalition acknowledged that while digital contact tracing and exposure notification tools are valuable in understanding the spread of COVID-19 and assisting public health authorities, these same technologies pose a risk to consumers' privacy.
